10 Ancient Portals and Stargates

PROGRAM - 12PM | CLASS FEE $10

Speaker: Rochelle Christopher, Executive Director of Victorian Vanities and Public Speaker

This year marks the 50th anniversary of man on the moon. Many ancient cultures speak of portals to other worlds and gateways to star systems where their "creators" reside. Conventional wisdom tells us these tales are merely myths and legends. However, recent declassified FBI files have stated that our Earth has been visited by beings from other dimensions and planets. NASA has announced that "portals" do indeed appear to be hidden within the earth's magnetic field, making some wonder if the legends of stargates, portals and wormholes may have some degree of truth to them.

WEDNESDAY JULY 3 Optional Deli Lunch - 12pm

Tea 101: What's in Your Cup?

PROGRAM - 12PM | CLASS FEE $10

Speaker: Karen Donnelly, Tea Association of Canada, certified Tea Sommelier

The drink that many people consume daily, morning and evening, has a long and rich history. From ancient China a thousand years ago, to Western Europe just a few hundred years ago, what started as medicine has developed into a luxurious, all consuming, and socializing event. This lecture will discuss the history, growing regions, production style, costumes and traditions, accompanied with a tasting.

WEDNESDAY JULY 10 Optional Deli Lunch - 12pm

Into The Storm: WWI and the Jews, 1914-1919

PROGRAM - 12:30PM | CLASS FEE $10 | WITH LUNCH $20

Speaker: Rabbi Lance Sussman Ph.D., Senior Rabbi at Keneseth Israel Synagogue. Professor of Jewish American History

Although one of the great episodes of all time, much of the story of World War I is little known today and the history of Jewish involvement in the global struggle is even less familiar. In this sweeping presentation, the general course of the war and the role Jews played on both sides will be highlighted. From the founding of the Jewish Mule Corps to the Balfour Declaration to the British victory in the land of Israel, we will explore in a "day by day" fashion the remarkable epoch, which ironically came to be known as the War to End All Wars.

MONDAY JULY 15 Coffee and Cookies - 11:30am

Politics of the Day

PROGRAM - 12PM | CLASS FEE $10

Speaker: Dr. Mathew Kerbel, Professor of Political Science, Villanova University

With Democrats claiming a House majority last fall and a redacted version of the Mueller report released in April, we are now in a period of confrontation and potential accountability the likes of which we have not seen during the first two years of the Trump administration. We will examine where things stand in the sparring between House Democrats and the president and consider the implications for the 2020 election.

WEDNESDAY JULY 17 Optional Deli Lunch - 12pm

Faith in Cannabis

PROGRAM - 12:30PM | CLASS FEE $10 | WITH LUNCH $20

Speaker: Laurel Freedman, MSW, Social Activist in the Medical Cannabis Field

Cannabis, marijuana, weed, whatever the term is, cannabis has been a topic of conversation, debate, and controversy for decades. While cannabis has been around for more than 12,000 years, its only recently that legalization has spread. In this talk Laurel Friedman will discuss the implications of religion, science, and justice in PA's Medical Marijuana Program.

MONDAY JULY 22 Coffee and Cookies – 11:30am

Historical & Developmental Patterns of African American Jewry

▶ PROGRAM - 12PM | CLASS FEE $10

Speaker: Rabbi Earl Bowen Jr. Ph.D., LSW., Associate Rabbi at Congregation Temple Beth El and Behavioral Therapist Lincoln University

African American Jews have a long history in Philadelphia and in the US in general, whether they are a separate community or part of a larger Jewish community. Rabbi Earl Bowen of Congregation Beth El in West Oak Lane will discuss the synagogue's history and the role African American Jews play in Jewish and minority social and political arena.

WEDNESDAY JULY 24 Optional Deli Lunch – 12pm

The Lewis and Clark Expedition (1803-1806) – Discovering the American West

▶ PROGRAM - 12:30PM | CLASS FEE $10 | WITH LUNCH $20

Speaker: John W. Jengo, Geologist and environmental consultant

Author Kathryn Lasky said: "I think the Lewis and Clark Expedition was the greatest undertaking in American history. I think landing a man on the moon pales next to it." This presentation will try to answer why this may be so and will review the preparation, the 2.5-year journey to the Pacific Ocean and back, and numerous achievements and discoveries of the Lewis and Clark Expedition. Led by Captains Meriwether Lewis and William Clark, the expedition explored the Louisiana Purchase and the Pacific Northwest between 1804-1806, which is still considered to be the greatest chapter in the annals of American exploration.
