VIRTUAL AUGUST PROGRAM 2020

MONDAYS

3 WEEKS | AUGUST 10-24

Focus on World War II: Art, Jewelry, and Memoir

► 11-12 PM | COURSE FEE: $25

Instructor: Jan Krulick-Belin, Author, Museum and Art Consultant

This series explores World War II through three separate lenses: the fate of Viennese artist Gustav Klimt's famous portrait, The Lady in Gold, at the hands of the Nazis; Jan's own father's wartime experience as recounted in her award-winning memoir, Love, Bill; and an exploration of the period's Sweetheart Jewelry craze and its contribution to the war effort.

TUESDAYS

3 WEEKS | AUGUST 11-25

A History of African People in the Americas

► 11-12 PM | COURSE FEE: $25

Instructor: Taharka Adé, PhD Candidate and Instructor in the Department of Africology at Temple University

This lecture series will present a brief history of the antecedents of African American culture that is informed by the African historical background, as well as the history of African Americans after arriving on American shores. It will also explore ideas of memory, vestige, and dynamism within the contemporary African American cultural milieu.

THURSDAYS

3 WEEKS | AUGUST 13-27

The Week That Was

► 11-12 PM | COURSE FEE: $25

Instructor: Ira Cooperman, Former Air Force Intelligence Officer and a Former Member of the CIA

This class is focused on learning the "news behind the news" with a former intelligence analyst who also used to be a newspaper reporter. It will cover the most significant national and world events that have occurred the previous week.

G GOLDEN SLIPPER Gems

Golden Slipper Gems is exploring our options for the fall. We want you to have direct input on whether we should start some in-person classes in October and we will be sending you a brief survey in mid-August to hear your opinion. We will continue to offer Zoom courses alongside any in-person courses we have so you always have a choice. All September courses will be via Zoom.
