TUESDAYS

4 WEEKS JULY 20 - AUGUST 10

Israel Through the Lens of its Playwrights

► 11-12 PM | COURSE FEE: $34

Instructor: Deborah Baer Mozes, Founding Artistic Director of Theatre Ariel

What are Israeli playwrights exploring in their work? What do their plays reveal about Israel past and present; about Israeli life, values, and thought? In this hands-on class, we will read and discuss scenes from plays by contemporary Israeli playwrights to find answers to these questions. We will mine themes such as identity, family, biblical text, faith, and the Shoah.

WEDNESDAYS

4 WEEKS JULY 21 - AUGUST 11

Encore! A Summer Arts Showcase

► 11-12 PM | COURSE FEE: $34

Instructor: Varied, check course description

Each week we bring a different artist to present on a new arts topic. Director and singer Dylan Thomas will present "The ABCs of Tony B", performing Tony Bennett's songs and delving into the backstory of his life. Dancer and educator Alicia-Lynn Castro will introduce us to the beauty of various Brazilian dance forms. Comedian Dave Goldstein will teach us about the genre of standup, outlining different elements and demonstrating them through hilarious clips of iconic standup routines. Luke Poling, film maker, will focus on the work of director and producer Mike Nichols (The Graduate), whose outstanding work within theatre, film, and television has won him multiple Academy, Tony and Emmy awards.

Featured Summer Series!
