VIRTUAL ZOOM PROGRAMS

TUESDAYS

4 WEEKS JANUARY 4 – 25

In Their Own Words: American Jews and Social Justice

▶ 11-12PM | COURSE FEE $35

Instructor: Dr. Reena Sigman Friedman, Associate Professor of Modern Jewish History, RRC

This course explores the contributions made by selected Jewish activists to various social justice movements in the United States from the mid-nineteenth through the late twentieth centuries. We will examine movements for health care, gender equality, racial justice, and the rights of workers. Using excerpts from the activists' speeches, memoirs, and other writings as our primary texts, we will discuss their motivations, challenges, and accomplishments. These individuals' stories, as told in their own words, can be instructive and inspirational for us today.

TUESDAYS

3 WEEKS JANUARY 4 – 18

Honoring Stephen Sondheim's Life and Legacy

▶ 1:30-2:30PM | COURSE FEE $26

Instructor: Leila Joffe, MFA, American Conservatory Theater, Member AFTRA, Screen Actors Guild and Actors Equity

Stephen Sondheim, who passed away in November, was one of the greatest musical composers of our time, and one of the rare few who wrote both music and lyrics. In this three week course, we will learn about his life and the amazing contribution he made to musical theater.

IN-PERSON PROGRAMS

THURSDAYS

4 WEEKS JANUARY 6 – 27

The Coen Brothers: A Dynamic Directing Duo

▶ 10-11AM | COURSE FEE $35

Instructor: David Greenberg, Writer-Director, Adjunct Associate Professor, Temple University

Joel and Ethan Coen have had quite an extraordinary career as trailblazers marching to their own beat, achieving critical and commercial success with their unique vision while also becoming "brand name" filmmakers. This four-week course will serve as an introduction to their work, an exploration of the themes they touch on in silly, broad comedies as well as dark, meditative thrillers, and a look at the way they make their films.

THURSDAYS

4 WEEKS JANUARY 6 – 27

Jazz and the Great American Songbook

▶ 11:15-12:15PM | COURSE FEE $35

Instructor: John Banger, Jazz Aficionado, Teacher

Come ready to tap your toes as we listen to, watch, and learn about some of the most well-loved music of all time. Jazz and the Great American Songbook may be two of the most durable musical forms created, nurtured, and sustained in the United States. In this class, we will explore how these two distinct musical forms depend on each other for their existence as we celebrate the music of Irving Berlin, George Gershwin, and Jerome Kern.
