MONDAYS

6 WEEKS FEB 28 – APRIL 4

Women of History

▶ 1:30-2:30PM | COURSE FEE: $53

Instructor: Herb Kaufman, Adjunct Professor, Manor College, Editorial Staff, The Civil War News

Intrigue, Revenge, Courage, Conspiracy, and Deception: The old axiom is that women should be seen and not heard. However, history demonstrates that nothing could be further from the truth. Beginning with many of the Queens of England, the Elizabethan and Victorian eras, through World War II, this course is designed to highlight the true but often untold past of famous and often infamous women of history.

TUESDAYS

6 WEEKS MARCH 1 – APRIL 5

Legendary Actors of the Stage and Screen

▶ 11-12 PM | COURSE FEE: $53

Instructor: Leila Joffe, MFA, American Conservatory Theater, Member AFTRA, Screen Actors Guild and Actors Equity

In this course, we will highlight some of the greatest actors of the stage and screen. We will look at the life and works of Humphrey Bogart, Sydney Poitier, Gregory Peck, Denzel Washington, Paul Newman, and Dustin Hoffman. These are just a few of the incredible actors who left us with timeless and haunting performances that have lasted the test of time.

TUESDAYS

6 WEEKS MARCH 1 – APRIL 5

Backyard Wildlife (and a bit more)

▶ 1:30-2:30PM | COURSE FEE: $53

Instructor: Mike Kaczmarczik, Adult Programs Developer at the Academy of Natural Sciences

Where does a buzzing fly come from and why it is in the kitchen? Why do raccoons like to search in our trash can? What is the benefit for humans in having snakes around them? What are the various superpowers birds of prey use to survive? This science course will help answer these questions and more. It will explore everything from local bugs and their extreme tropical relatives to native mammals like bears and badgers, to the grace and power of birds. We will also take a look into the realm of ancient creatures and their connections to life today. This course will also include the showing of live critters!

WEDNESDAYS

6 WEEKS | MARCH 2 – APRIL 6

Stones that Speak

► 11-12 PM | COURSE FEE: $53

Instructor: Gadi Ben Dov, Israeli Tour Guide

The land of Israel is filled with stones and rocks, some natural and some are manmade. Those stones were witnesses to many events, people and nations that inhabited the land throughout history; if these stones were able to speak, they would tell many stories that are unknown to most. In this course, we will explore places such as Tzipori, Megido and Mount Herzl. We will delve into the ruins of ancient synagogues in the Galilee, mosaics of old cities, battlefields between ancient nations, modern day monuments and natural phenomena that are unique to the land of Israel.

THURSDAYS

6 WEEKS | MARCH 3 – APRIL 7

Blowin' in the Wind: Folk Music of the 1960s

► 1:30-2:30PM | COURSE FEE: $53

Instructors: Steve Pollack, Entertainer, Singer, Lecturer, and Director

What sets folk music aside from many other popular music genres is its sincerity. Singer-songwriters reach us with beautiful melodies, rich harmonies, raw emotion, and lyrics that speak to us. In this course, we will cover some of the 1960s most popular folk artists such as Bob Dylan, Peter Paul and Mary, the Mamas and the Papas, and Simon and Garfunkel. We will dive into their music together as well as look at some of what makes their music tick: the political backdrop, the stories behind their music, and their group dynamics.
