STEVEN SPIELBERG AND "THE NEW HOLLYWOOD" 10-11AM | COURSE FEE $35
Instructor: Irv Slifkin, Professor of Journalism at Temple University

In the late 1960s and early 1970s, a new breed of young filmmakers infiltrated Hollywood. Their fresh approach to the medium and unquestionable talent shook up the film industry's establishment, ushering in a new age in classic cinema. This course looks at the revolution that occurred in the movie business during that period when a young Steven Spielberg, from an Orthodox Jewish family, became the most successful filmmaker in history. Along with a special focus on Spielberg, other directors will be discussed including Peter Bogdanovich, Arthur Penn, and Sydney Pollack, as well as Martin Scorsese and Francis Coppola.

This exhilarating course is about the men and women who influenced and created fashion from the 1920s to the present, especially the women who defined style and defied convention! From the high priestess of fashion, Coco Chanel, through Audrey Hepburn, Grace Kelly, Jackie Kennedy, Katherine Hepburn and Madonna, you will learn what made them so unique. You will also learn about the male trend-setters like Cary Grant, Marlon Brando, James Dean and George Clooney whose own personal spin on basic wardrobe pieces in a man's closet put some of them on the best-dressed list for many years.
