Take a tour exploring Barcelona's amazing architecture with us! Dominique's experience as a Jewish community leader, independent researcher and a Jewish heritage activist will help us experience the fascinating architecture of Barcelona from a very unique perspective. In this session, we will learn about Catalan Modernism, how the city is laid out, and the basics of the mixed-use midtown buildings and the rich art that is applied to them.

WHAT ARE THEY WRITING? JEWISH PLAYS AND PLAYWRIGHTS

Instructor: Deborah Baer Mozes, Founding Artistic Director of Theatre Ariel

What are contemporary Jewish playwrights exploring in their work? What do their plays reveal about American life and values, Jewish thought and life, and world affairs? In this interactive hands-on class, we will read and discuss ten-minute plays and scenes from full length plays to answer the question, what are they writing? After our 90 minute class, we will stay for snacks and schmoozing. This class will take place at a member's home in Newtown. After registration, you will get the address.

THURSDAY August 4 | 10-12:15pm | COST $18

WHAT'S UP DOC? MOVIE AND BAGEL BRUNCH DISCUSSION

Led by: Irv Slifkin, Professor of Journalism at Temple University

In Peter Bogdanovich's fun-filled salute to the screwball comedies of the 1930s and 1940s, Ryan O'Neal is a naïve music expert attending a convention in San Francisco with overbearing fiancée Madeline Kahn. His life is turned upside down when he meets mysterious Barbara Streisand and his plaid overnight bag gets mixed up with three other similar bags. After the film, enjoy a bagel and fruit brunch while Irv Slifkin leads us in a discussion about the movie.

THURSDAY August 11 | 10am-12:15pm | COST $18

A MORNING OF MUSIC!

WITH MARGARET MONTET AND STEVE POLLACK

(two classes back to back)

MUSIC AND GOSSIP IN THE GILDED AGE

Instructor: Margaret Montet, Librarian and Author

The Gilded Age was a unique era of American history in between the end of the Civil War and the beginning of World War I. During this time, technological and cultural innovations changed the lifestyles of the successful few and the many who struggled. This course will examine the "new normal" for the rich, the poor, and those in-between. We'll visit the fabulous mansions of Newport, Hull House in Chicago, and many sites in New York. We will meet the Vanderbilts, Mamie Fish, Jane Addams, and more to learn what happened behind closed doors. And of course music! We'll listen to music popular at the time including Ragtime, dance music, and art music.

BLUEBIRD OF HAPPINESS:

THE CAREER OF OPERATIC STAR JAN PEECE

Performance and Lecture by: Steve Pollack, Entertainer, Singer, Lecturer, and Director

Affectionately known as "Pinky," Jan Peerce started singing at Radio City Music Hall, and was then taken under the wing of Arturo Toscanini to sing with the NBC Radio Orchestra. He went on to sing with the Metropolitan Opera Company from 1941 to 1966, besides having a distinguished career in concerts and recordings. He was also, almost as famously, the brother-in-law of Tenor Richard Tucker. Sit back and enjoy the beautiful music as Steve entertains us with the story of Jan Peerce's life, shares his favorite recordings, and sings his own renditions of the arias that made Jan Peerce's career soar!

Dr. Mark Thomas, Adjunct Professor, LaSalle University
