Welcome to our September ZOOM PROGRAMS

3 TUESDAYS September 6-20

JEWISH COMPOSERS OF BROADWAY

11AM-12PM | COURSE FEE $29

Instructor: Dan Pantano, Concert Operetta Theater Executive and Artistic Director

Since the beginning of Broadway, many composers and lyricists were of Jewish background. They dominated Broadway for close to 50 years - and are still going strong! This 3-part lecture series will begin with Kurt Weill, the well-known Jewish composer in both Germany and New York City, and will continue with contemporary composers including Alan Menken and more. Come and join us for a fun ride on the Broadway train!

3 TUESDAYS September 6-20

RELIGIOUS SITES IN ISRAEL

1:30-2:30PM | COURSE FEE $29

Instructor: Gadi Ben Dov, Israeli Tour Guide

This class will visit three major sites of three religions in Israel: the Cave of the Patriarchs in Hebron; the Church of the Holy Sepulcher in Jerusalem; and the Baha'i Gardens in Haifa. These sites hold a special place in religions around the world, as well as in the history of the land of Israel. This 3-part class will explore the idea of religion tied to space, the architecture of these sites, historical marking points, and more.

A Very Sweet and Happy
Rosh Hashanah
from our family to yours!

3 WEDNESDAYS September 7-21

BILLY WILDER MOVIES

10AM-12PM | COURSE FEE $40

Instructor: Irv Slifkin, Professor of Journalism at Temple University

Legendary filmmaker Billy Wilder won six Academy Awards with nineteen nominations. The Austrian-born writer-director elicited great performances throughout his six-decade career, and pushed the cinematic envelope with his whip-smart dialogue and acerbic humor. This 3-part series shows us Wilder at his best. Included are Sunset Blvd. (1950); Stalag 17 (1953) and The Apartment (1960).

3 WEDNESDAYS September 7-21

PSYCHOLOGY IN ART: THE LIVES AND WORK OF VINCENT VAN GOGH, SALVADOR DALÍ, AND FRIDA KAHLO

4-5PM | COURSE FEE $29

Instructor: Mariann Smith, Author & Former Art Curator

Aspects of psychology take numerous forms in art and are reflected differently in the work of each of these three fascinating artists. The mature paintings of Vincent van Gogh, which changed the way modern artists looked at color, express his joy in the surrounding landscape while masking his struggle with mental health. Salvador Dalí looked to Sigmund Freud's writings and other psychological theories in his attempts to understand and recreate the atmosphere and imagery of dreams. Frida Kahlo, was a beautiful and outgoing woman who loved Mexican culture. Her chronic physical pain from a childhood accident and the emotional pain caused by her marriage to Diego Rivera came through only in her compelling paintings.

IN-PERSON PROGRAMS

3 THURSDAYS September 8-22

3 EXTRAORDINARY COMPOSERS 10-11AM | COURSE FEE $29

Instructor: Gary Kaplan, Art Instructor and Life-long Devotee of Classical Music

Nosh on refreshments while our very own Gary Kaplan examines three classical composers whose works have enriched our lives. We'll explore the music of the tragically short lived but prolific Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, known and loved for his symphonic and operatic masterpieces, to the towering genius of Ludwig Van Beethoven. We'll conclude this three-week course with the melodic works of Antonin Dvorak, infused with the warmth of his Czech homeland and inspired by the burgeoning vigor of the America he came to love.

3 THURSDAYS September 8-22

THE ART OF MARTIN SCORSESE

11:15AM-12:15PM | COURSE FEE $29

Instructor: Luke Poling, Filmmaker & Podcaster

Watching a Martin Scorsese movie is watching the history of movies distilled down by one visionary filmmaker. How does he do it? What are his films really about? And how can we use Scorsese's movies as a jumping off point for exploring even more? Was Taxi Driver really inspired by Scorsese's childhood? What does The Departed have to say about identity? And what are the fight sequences in Raging Bull really trying to say? Join us as we explore one of the greatest filmmakers of all time. Be prepared for some disturbing scenes from these movies.

THURSDAY September 22

L'CHAIM! NEW YEAR TOAST 12:15-12:45PM

Let's schmooze and toast to the upcoming new year together. We are grateful for our members and would love the opportunity to get together for challah, honey and non-alcoholic sparkling wine. Hope to see you!
