ZOOM PROGRAMS

6 TUESDAYS February 21 - March 28

No Class March 7!

BROADWAY LEADING LADIES AND MEN OF PAST AND PRESENT

10 - 11AM | COURSE FEE $49

Instructor: Leila Joffe, American Conservatory Theater, AFTRA, SAG, Actors Equity

In this course we will watch some of the greatest Broadway leading ladies and men of the past and present. Julie Andrews, Gwen Verdon, Chita Rivera, Kristen Chenoweth, Audra McDonald, Kelli O'Hara, and Bernadette Peters are some of the ladies that will be highlighted. Zero Mostel, John Raitt, Richard Kiley, Yul Brenner, Nathan Lane, Brian Stokes Mitchell, Jeremy Jordan, and Hugh Jackman are some of the great men that will be featured.

6 TUESDAYS February 21 - March 28

SIX ON 75!

11:15AM - 12:15PM | COURSE FEE $58

Instructor: Gadi Ben Dov, Israeli Tour Guide

This year marks the 75th anniversary of the State of Israel. We will discuss six events and places that are related to the birth of the State and its development. These include the Balfour Declaration to the Declaration of Independence, famous songs like Jerusalem of Gold, and famous people such as David Ben Gurion and more.

6 WEDNESDAYS February 22 - March 29

THE MESSIAH

10 - 11AM | COURSE FEE $58

Instructor: Barnett Kamen, Retired Jewish Studies Teacher, Jack M. Barrack Hebrew Academy

Jesus was originally proclaimed as the Messiah, as his designation, the Christ, the anointed one, demonstrates. We will examine the concept of the Messiah, first as it appears in the Hebrew Bible, then through rabbinic and Christian writings. Our last text will be the Mishneh Torah of Maimonides, examining his definitions. We will then look at how the denominations of Judaism today address the subject.

WELCOME TO GOLDEN SLIPPER GEMS MID-WINTER PROGRAMS 2023

6 WEDNESDAYS February 22 - March 29

KEVIN COSTNER FILMS

11:15AM - 12:15PM | COURSE FEE $58
Instructor: Dave Goldstein, Comedian, Charity Auctioneer and Copywriter

This course will cover the remarkable career of actor and director Kevin Costner. Some call him the Gary Cooper of his generation. From his early roles in films like The Big Chill and Fandango, through Bull Durham, Field of Dreams, Dances With Wolves, and his current starring role as a powerful but troubled rancher in Yellowstone, Costner's work has always been compelling. No actor today is more synonymous with two iconic American cultural examples - baseball and western movies - than the great Kevin Costner!

MUSEUMS AROUND THE WORLD

1:30PM - 2:30PM | COURSE FEE $58
Instructor: Lynn Berkowitz, MFA, BFA

What does Madrid, New York City, Kansas City, London, Chicago, and Paris have in common? Incredible cultural offerings and magnificent museums filled with stunning works of art! Join our virtual travel to happening sites to view and discuss a diverse range of works of art that feature artists both well-known and not as prominent. We will focus on ways of seeing art from a variety of viewpoints in this conversational-style class that features short, related videos to bring fresh perspectives to consider and discuss. From classical to contemporary, an assortment of art movements will enrich the conversation.

IN-PERSON PROGRAMS

6 THURSDAYS February 23 - March 30

THE BRITISH INVASION OF THE 1960'S

10 - 11AM | COURSE FEE $58

Instructor: Steve Pollack, Performer and Lecturer

Let's welcome back Steve, one of our favorite lecturers! British music brought America's own rock and roll back to the United States with a vengeance with the Beatles and Rolling Stones appearances in 1964. But they were not the only ones that invaded - British actors, movies, television, fashion, Broadway Shows and literature flooded American markets during the 1960's. This series is a look at how and why we were inundated with James Bond, Twiggy, Oliver!, Lawrence of Arabia, Secret Agent Man, 1984, The Lord of the Rings and dozens of Pop/Rock/Blues Bands. Sessions include multi-media presentation and live entertainment!

6 THURSDAYS February 23 - March 30

THE JEWISH EXPERIENCE IN AMERICA

11:15AM - 12:15PM | COURSE FEE $58

Instructor: Harriet Freidenreich, Professor Emerita of History, Temple University

This course will delve into American Jewish history, focusing on the late 19th and 20th centuries. Topics include Eastern European immigration, Jews and the Left, World War I, the Holocaust and the State of Israel, Jewish religious denominationalism, and Jewish women and feminism. Classes will combine lecture and discussion.
